

EVERY Democrat must from this day until after the polls close on the day of election work hard for the success of the local ticket. The only way to win is to put forth every endeavor that is likely to bring success. More comes to the man who hustles than to the man who depends upon luck.

Mr. CLEVELAND's Cabinet, so far as known, will be the following: Secretary of State—Walter Q. Gresham, of Indiana; Secretary of the Treasury—John G. Carlisle, of Kentucky; Secretary of War—Daniel S. Lamont, of New York; Postmaster General—Wilson S. Bissell, of New York; Secretary of Agriculture—Hoover Smith, of Georgia.

Mr. Smith is editor of the Atlanta Journal and the original Cleveland standard bearer in Georgia. Mr. Bissell was Mr. Cleveland's law partner in Buffalo. In the fall of 1872 Mr. Bissell formed a partnership with Horace Lyman K. Bass, and about a year later Mr. Cleveland became a member of the firm, which was thereafter known as Bass, Cleveland & Bissell.

It may now be stated authoritatively that Judge Walter Q. Gresham, of Illinois, is to be Secretary of State. Mr. Cleveland has received a letter from Judge Gresham accepting the Secretarship of State. Judge Gresham's appointment to this responsible position, is eminently a fit and happy one, inasmuch as he is a man of extraordinary ability and may be expected to fill the position with credit to himself and the incoming administration. The politicians will likely protest and criticize the selection of Mr. Cleveland, but he has illustrious precedents for the selection, which in the end will likely prove most opportune and politic.

Legislative

It is quite likely that the present Legislature will pass a Congressional Apportionment bill, and one has been proposed which, if passed, will materially change the district map of Adams county in part. Instead of York, Cumberland and Adams being together as now, York will be joined with Dauphin, and Cumberland, Adams, Franklin, Fulton and Perry will form one district.

According to the vote cast for President last November, this will make the district Democratic, with about 375,000.

The bill prohibiting the manufacture and sale of cigarettes in this Commonwealth, with severe penalties, has passed the House and been sent to the Senate for concurrence.

A bill has been introduced in the Senate at Harrisburg, providing that all cleared lands for agricultural or horticultural purposes, and all grounds kept for pasture, shall be fined with a maximum fine of at least $1000 a acre.
